

Violet Class (Y6)

Year 6 children could spend time revising sections from the CPG study books - particularly for numeracy and literacy.

They could also write a diary entry for each day of school they have missed, explaining what effect the snow has had on their day and how it affected other members of their family.

On going learning activities include practising times tables and independent reading.