

Home Learning

Year 6 Week 10 (Week Beginning 8th June 2020)

Welcome to our latest weekly update, South America Class. Hope you are all well and continuing to enjoy your home learning.

Thank you to those of you who sent me a letter letting me know how you are getting on. It was lovely to have a bundle of them to open when I popped into school earlier this week. I love getting post and hand-written letters are so special to receive.

English

Using the last Talk For Writing home learning booklet (Doors) created such great writing, I'd like us to work our way through another of their booklets –

Please have a go at activities 4-10 this week. I look forward to seeing what gadgets you design!

Maths

For Maths this week, I want you to use the Corbett Maths primary website.

<https://corbettmathsprimary.com/content/>

Have a go at the range of questions (maybe do one set a day) for the following sections:

- Factors
- Multiples
- Line graphs
- Parallel and perpendicular lines
- Order of operations

There is an answer document on the site and a video which demonstrates how to approach some of the questions for each section.

Topic

To continue with our Bristol topic 'Ship Shape and Bristol Fashion', I would like you to find out how The Colston Hall got its name. This is going to change. Why has it been decided to change the name?

Have a look at this:

What is it?

What is it used for?

PSHE

Watch the video 'Wing' from The Literacy Shed (<https://www.literacyshed.com/the-thinking-shed.html>) and consider the following questions.

- Was it an uplifting or sad film?
- What was the message that the filmmaker was trying to portray to the audience?

- |  |  |

|  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Do you agree with the quote at the end of the film?</li><li>- How do you think the main character felt at various points in the film?</li><li>- Have you ever behaved like one of the characters in the film? What did it feel like for you?</li></ul> |

Remember to keep sending in all your great work – either via Purple Mash or to our class email address:

In response to the poetry task in the half-term newsletter, I got sent a wonderful recording of this fantastic poem and wanted to share the poem with you all.

Drop in the Ocean by Jane Clarke

Sploshing around
in life's restless sea,
there's a drop in the ocean,
and that drop is me.

Rocked by the waves,
or washed up on the shore,
I'm a minuscule drop,
among zillions more.

I'm a drop in the ocean
of life's restless sea.

But there'd be no ocean
without drops like me.
