Values Newsletter Term 3: Honesty

Welcome back to a new term and a new year, hello 2024!

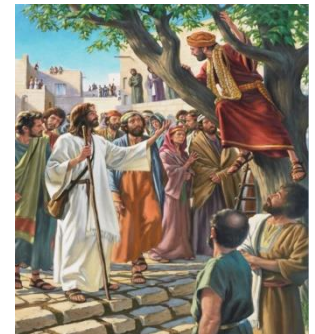

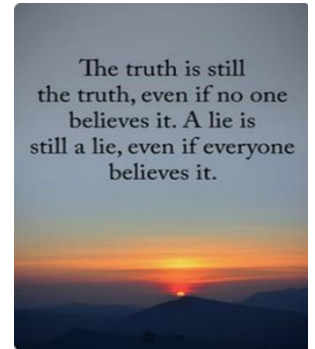

I wonder how many of you will have made New Year's Resolutions? Resolutions are a promise to yourself that you will do something/ commit to something this year. I wonder now, how many of you will be able to link one of your resolutions to one of our Values? Perhaps remembering to be thankful for everything we have, rather than focusing on the things we don't have. Perhaps it might be to remember to be a good friend and neighbour, to show compassion in our daily lives and to have the courage to go for our goals! If yours is to tell the truth, even when it is difficult, then this term's Bible story about a man who was dishonest, will interest you. It also includes another of our Values; Forgiveness as Jesus recognised this man's desire to change. After all, isn't that what life is about...learning from our mistakes?

There was once a man who didn't have any friends (none!) It wasn't because he was short, it wasn't because he was a tax collector (although, he was both of these). It was because he was dishonest. He collected more taxes than he should have and kept the money for himself! He made himself a rich man by stealing other people's money! People knew what he was up to, but he was powerful, so they didn't dare say anything. So, Zacchaeus (because that was his name) had no friends – nobody liked him, and nobody trusted him!

One day, a huge crowd had gathered because they had heard that Jesus was coming to town. Now Zacchaeus had heard about Jesus too and really wanted to see him – there was something Jesus had said that had planted a seed in his heart. Nobody would let Zacchaeus get to the front of the crowd to see him (which wasn't surprising as no one liked him), and he couldn't see over everyone's heads but he had a good idea. He climbed up a nearby tree so that he could get a better look. In fact, he had a perfect view! When Jesus came alongside the tree, he saw Zacchaeus and called up to him by name- yes, Jesus knew his name- and told him that he wanted to come to his house!

Needless to say, the people were quite cross that Jesus wanted to spend time with such a dishonest man, so they booed him and shouted hurtful names. Jesus knew exactly what he was doing though, and once inside his house, Zacchaeus confessed all the bad things he had done because he felt so ashamed! He promised Jesus that he would give everyone's money back (and more!) and he did just that.

THINK TOGETHER Words of Wisdom

"To be truthful with others, you must first be truthful with yourself"

Lord God,

Jesus taught us the value of Honesty. Help us to always try to be truthful to ourselves and others and know that God will always forgive us if we are truly sorry.

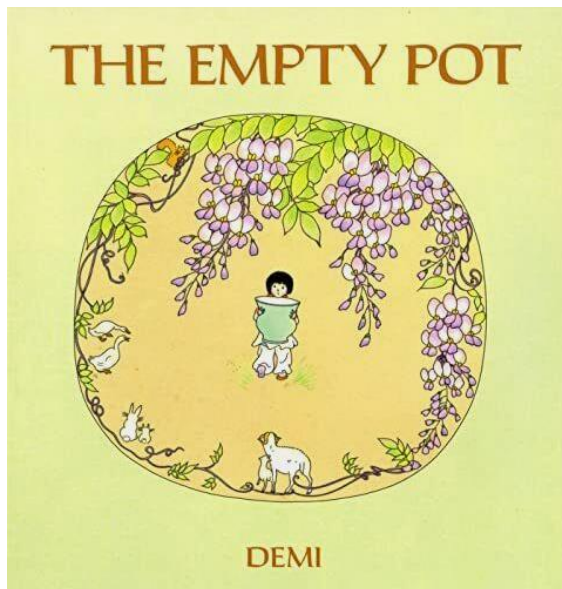

Amen.

Where can we find other stories about Honesty?

*Mrs Sell LOVES reading stories and would love to find more stories for our Value of Honesty.
Here is my challenge to you.....*

Bring me a copy of a story which you feel shows the value of Honesty and tell me about it. There's an Honesty sticker waiting for you if you do and if I can't find it in our library, it soon will be!

This Chinese Folk Tale shows that honesty and integrity (as well as a little courage) commands respect and is definitely the best path to follow! This one is definitely going on my list!

Most lies start as little lies and grow bigger the more we deny the truth. This story illustrates this so well. What happens when a lie gets so big it turns into a Whopper?!

What titles can you find which show Honesty?
