

Key Vocabulary

- Explorer- a person who goes exploring
- Expedition- a journey undertaken by a group of people, often to explore
- Equator- the imaginary line that goes around the centre of the globe
- Habitats- a place where living things can find everything they need to survive
- Climate- the weather of a place at a particular time of year
- Consumer- eat other animals or plants
- Producer- make their own food from the sun

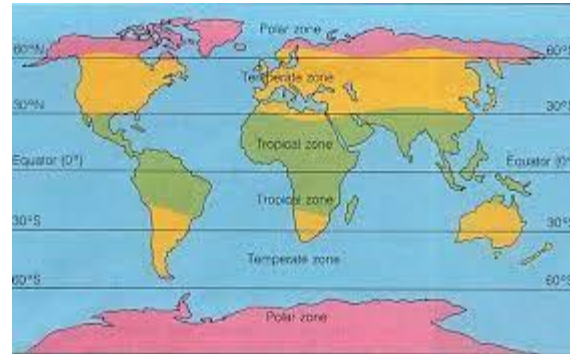

Extreme Earth

Year 1 and 2 Spring 1

Key Knowledge

- Robert Falcon Scott led 2 trips to Antarctica.
- He wanted to find out more about the animals and weather.
- He also wrote a famous diary about his expedition.
- There are different types of habitats- some are big, some are small. Some are on land, some are on water.
- Animals get energy from their food.
- Plants get energy from the sun.

Key Figures

Robert Falcon Scott

Virtual Ecosystem Food Chain

